APPETITE FOR LIFE

THROUGH WOMEN IN FOOD, WINE, SONG & SPIRIT

MARCH 12-15, 2009

MAKE PLANS FOR THE ONE EVENT THIS SPRING YOU DON'T WANT TO MISS.

Experience a weekend of passionate spirit as we savor three days of unparalleled entertainment and creative treasures while honoring some of the world's most inspiring women. Be among the first to reserve your place for this unforgettable event at Blackberry Farm this Spring.

Join actress, children's activist and Population Services International board member Ashley Judd, Condé Nast Traveler Deputy Editor Dorinda Elliott and Grammy Award-winning country music artist Wynonna Judd as we celebrate the very best in food, wine, song and spirit while raising awareness about the needs of children around the world. Savor delicious meals prepared by James Beard Award winner Chef Michelle Bernstein, and indulge in the sweet decadence of Katrina Markoff's Vosges Haut-Chocolat—and don't miss your opportunity to raise a glass to good times and a great cause with winemaker Gaia Gaja's vintages along with Dom Pérignon Champagne.

Visit fiveandalive.org to learn more about the organization's mission worldwide.
